

Details About Breakout Groups

A. Overview of Breakout Groups

- The breakout groups are an optional part of the program, but they are strongly recommended.
- You will be assigned to a breakout group, unless you “opt out.”
- If you “opt out” we will ask you to log out of the Zoom session at the end of the first half of each evening. (Following the General Session and the Health Segment.)

B. Recommended Process for Breakout Groups

- Begin by Connecting
 - Introductions
 - Checking in: How was your week?
- Share from the devotional, Streams in the Desert
 - One person begins by sharing something that impacted him in his (preferably current) personal experience. (Try to avoid having the same man begin this time of sharing each week.)
 - If someone else was impressed with the same daily reading, have them share next.
 - Then allow others to share who were impressed with a different daily reading.
 - When everyone has shared something, then interact about what impacted you about the testimonies.
 - Prepare to come back to the general session; having one group member share something that touched your group.
- Try to allow time to pray for each other.

C. Defining the Groups

- You will be assigned to a group beginning the second week of the program (May 15)
- Before being assigned:
 - Is there anyone who you would like to be in a group with?
 - Is there anyone who you would not like to be in a group with?
 - If you are not a good fit with your initial group, let us know and we will reassign you.
- Groups will be finalized on June 5. No one new will be added to the existing groups after that date.
- If we have new participants join us after June 5, we will plan to form new breakout groups.
